DEVELOPMENTS

Home at the heart of a thriving community

Nestled on the edge of the bustling market town of Halesworth in beautiful Suffolk, Manor View takes its name from the charming vistas over the rolling grounds of the historical hall nearby.

We've designed Manor View to offer all the comforts of a luxury countryside home. Every property in this small and exclusive development has been designed with care and attention to the consistently high standards that define Heritage.

The Heritage Way

Welcome to Heritage. We've been building high-quality homes in beautiful corners of East Anglia for nearly 20 years. Our approach is personal. We never forget that we don't simply build properties – we make you a home. So we set our standards high and use a network of trusted local suppliers to design, build and finesse every property with care and skill.

It's the little things that set us apart. From our thoughtfully chosen locations to the quality of the interior finishes, we create fully finished homes for thriving, sustainable lifestyles – all supported by consistently helpful service from our locally based team.

We focus on smaller, exclusive property developments in East Anglia. This enables us to create a community where complementary house styles blend sympathetically with their surroundings, with plenty of space for greenery to flourish.

And we're proud to offer personal support from your very first enquiry to your first years living in your new home – a home we hope you love as much as we do.

Say hello to Halesworth

Welcome to Halesworth, a pretty market town situated in the picturesque Blythe Valley, North Suffolk. This is a town that's steeped in history – and today is home to a lively and thriving community. From charming old streets filled with independent shops, delis, cafes and restaurants, to the UK's largest millennium green, to a host of family-friendly facilities including doctors, dentists, schools and more, Halesworth offers an idyllic combination of vibrant town living with the peace and quiet of the countryside.

Only ten miles from Suffolk's stunning coastline, Halesworth is a hive of activity. Pop in every Wednesday for the bustling Market Day, where you can pick up freshly caught fish and tempting regional treats, or stroll along the historic Thoroughfare to browse the shops or stop for a drink.

There's the Cut Arts Centre hosting a diverse range of cultural activities and talks, plus seasonal arts and music festivals to mark in your calendar. If you're after revitalising time in nature, head to the millennium green, where over 40 acres of lush meadows, woodland and heathland await you.
